Arts Club / 8920 Sunset, West Hollywood, Los Angeles, CA

This ground-up 125,000 square feet development, designed by Gensler Architects, is in the heart of the historic Sunset Strip.

Designed and developed for the future home of The Arts Club, which will occupy the fifth to ninth floors, it will include 10 hotel rooms. The third and fourth floors will accommodate creative office space.

The development will also feature ground-floor retail and restaurant space, a public art gallery, and parking which will take up multiple underground levels.
